House Bill No. 1343

by deleting Section 1 in its entirety and by substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 4-21-302, is amended by adding a new subsection thereto, as follows:

(f)(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, persons under contract with the commission to investigate complaints of discrimination shall be subject to all licensing and regulatory requirements of the Private Investigators Licensing and Regulatory Act, compiled in Title 62, Chapter 26, except for the requirement of § 62-26-204(c) that every private investigator maintain a place of business at a licensed investigations company. This exception shall only apply when work is being performed for the commission.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, persons designated by the commission under this section to investigate complaints of discrimination who were under contract on or before January 1, 2001 shall not be subject to the licensing and regulatory requirements of the Private Investigators Licensing and Regulatory Act for work performed for the commission.
